Printer compatibility of direct thermal labels

Our direct thermal labels for desktop and industrial printers are suitable for many models of different manufacturers like e.g. Zebra, TSC, cba, Meto and Honeywell. To check which labels are compatible with your direct thermal printer, please compare the details in the product table with the print media requirements in your printer handbook. Important parameters are suitability of the material, roll-core capacity, max. label width as well as max. outer diameter of the roll.

Should you have questions about our shipping labels for direct thermal printers, our customer service is happy to help you.
